Facts and Circumstances Memorandum Organization: International Conservation Fund (ICF) Tax year: 2025 Purpose: To demonstrate that ICF is publicly supported under the facts-and-circumstances standard for Schedule A. *Organization overview

International Conservation Fund is a public charity dedicated to environmental conservation, habitat protection, and community-based sustainability projects worldwide. Its programs are delivered for the public benefit and are designed to serve broad community and environmental needs, not the interests of a narrow private group. ICF operates through grants, partnerships, and public-facing programs. ICF funds a range of international conservation organizations. ICF bundles grants from donations from a range of private individuals and foundations to pass on to these organizations, complying with all charitable giving regulations for international organizations. *Public solicitation efforts ICF solicits support through annual campaigns, donor outreach, public communications, and recurring fundraising appeals. It does not rely on a closed circle of insiders or a limited private donor group. Its fundraising history shows consistent efforts to broaden support over time, including repeated gifts from many small donors and continued outreach to new contributors. In order to support these fundraising efforts, ICF has: *A website, internationalconservationfund.org *Presence on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/InternationalConservation> *Presence on Instagram <https://www.instagram.com/internationalconservationfund> *Monthly mailers to our email list of approximately 1000 distinct email addresses *ICF accepts donations, large to small, in various forms: via credit card and Paypal at the website, by check, by bank wire transfer, and by a monthly donations under its "Canopy" program. From time to time ICF holds public fundraising and informational events. For example, at Green Temple Restaurant in Redondo Beach, CA in December 2025. one-third public support test for the relevant period, it received well over 10% of its support from public sources during the measurement period. Public support came from a combination of small and large individual donations. ~2024: 53

~2025: 103

* Diverse governing body ICF's Board of Directors is composed of individuals with diverse backgrounds, professional expertise, and geographic locations relevant to the organization's mission. No donor or donor family controls the board, and no private person exercises governance over the organization. The governing structure reflects broad public interests rather than the interests of a limited number of contributors. ICF follows a rigorous governance model, with Bylaws, conflict of interest policy, regular Board meetings, weekly all-hands meetings with Board members and volunteer and paid staff. All funding decisions are made with full support and acknowledgement of the Board of Directors, as documented in meeting minutes. ICF also issues an Annual Report, sent by email to all funders and stakeholders, to document these activities.
